Jacqueline Ortega is an associate with the firm.

Jacqueline graduated from Davidson College in Davidson, North Carolina, where she majored in Political Science with a minor in Spanish. While attending Davidson, Jacqueline was a member of the NCAA Division I volleyball team, and served as team captain her senior year. In 2005, Jacqueline graduated from the University Of Miami School Of Law.

Jacqueline began her career as Assistant State Attorney for Miami Dade County's Office of the State Attorney in the Child Support Enforcement Division, establishing and enforcing court-ordered child support for the children of Miami-Dade County.

Jacqueline is a member of the Dade County Bar Association and Florida Association of Women Lawyers. She is an active member in her college alumni group and serves as President of the Young Alumni chapter in Miami.

When not working, Jacqueline enjoys anything involving the sun and water, including boating and the Florida Keys.
